

Curriculum and Quality Lead

Person Specification

Attributes	Essential	Desirable
Qualifications	Minimum HNC/D qualification Evidence of Continuous Professional Development	Teaching qualification or equivalent qualification in training and development
Experience	Experience of supporting curriculum development and planning. Ability to work with teams and collaborate on interventions to keep students on track to achieve. Experience of supporting the implementation of quality systems to meet both College and Awarding Body requirements Knowledge of the FE sector across Scotland including policy, funding methodologies and qualification frameworks Experience of successful partnership working with a wide range of stakeholders, both internal and external Knowledge of additional funding streams to contribute to the growth of the College's commercial income	Experience of working within Construction or Electrical Engineering
Skills/Knowledge	Teaching experience and knowledge of qualifications within the curriculum area.

	Excellent oral and written communication skills with the ability to effectively communicate with and influence a range of audiences. Strong organisational, planning and problem-solving skills Effective IT skills and the use of management information systems including data analytics To promote the College values and support the delivery of the strategic priorities
Other	Attendance at college events including occasional evenings or weekends There could be a requirement to travel overseas on behalf of the College.

